

SECURITY OFFICER

Officers play an integral part in maintaining the overall security and protection of the casino/hotel complex, maintaining a physical presence on the gaming floor and the surrounding complex as a deterrent to major and petty crime.

- Prior security experience.
- Good interpersonal skills
- Adaptable, energetic
- Good communication skills both written and verbal
- High personal presentation and hygiene
- No restriction in working a variety of shifts
- Successful officers will undergo an initial training period.

Appointment for the positions above is conditional upon final licence approval and individual security (probity) clearances from the Queensland Office of Gaming Regulation. It is a requirement of the legislation that all employees be 18 years of age or over, be an Australian Citizen or Permanent Resident of Australia.