Water

Evian

Every drop of Evian starts in the heart of the pristine heights of the French Alps. Here pure, clear rainwater and melting snow slowly filter down through ancient layers of glacial sand and rock. In a journey that takes over 15 years, the water gradually becomes enriched with essential minerals, until one day it emerges, 800 feet below, at the famous spring in Evian-les-Bains.

Recommendations

With its many layers of ingredients, flavours and spice, Asian cuisine can pose many a problem when it comes to trying to pair dishes with wine. To assist you to make the right decision here are some of our suggestions. We hope you will enjoy!...

Rogers & Rufus Grenache Rose, Barossa Valley, SA

9.5/42

A delightful cherry blossom pink exhibiting notes of cherry, almond, lavender, pomegranate, cold tea and a subtle herbaceousness. You can almost smell the hint of sunshine in this wine. With a deliciously dry, delicate, savoury palate and mineral saltiness from the low natural acidity of the Grenache this one goes perfect with our Crispy Tapioca Battered Tiger Prawns or Tamarind Oyster Trio.

First Drop Bella Copia Arneis, Adelaide Hills, SA

56

Bursting with zippy notes of citrus & lime zest backed by a hint of nashi pear and lush minerality, this wine is the ultimate summer cleanser. A varietal originating in Piedmont, Italy, this one comes to us from the cool climbs of the Adelaide Hills. Some say Sauvignon Blanc, some say Pinot Grigio, we say Arneis and a serve of our Seared Japanese Scallops with Wakame Salad or Crispy Wrapped Atlantic Salmon!

Tahbilk Marsanne, Nagambie Lakes, VIC

43

Originating in the Northern Rhone & Hermitage regions of France, Marsanne is one of the worlds rarest grape varieties. It holds a fascinating history with Tahbilk vineyard who has the largest single holding of the variety in the world along with some of the oldest vines. On the nose and palate this wine exudes characters of lemon, peach and tropical fruits backed by a dry minerality. With age comes characters of honeysuckle and stewed apricots. A great food wine, and perfect accompaniment to our Peanut & Sweet Soy Marinated Sirloin or Pan-fried Harissa Spiced Quail.

Montrose Pietra Sangiovese, Mudgee, NSW

56

Legend has it that Montrose has some of Australia's earliest plantings of sangiovese vines. A medium bodied, dry italian varietal this wine is bright and fresh with fruit characters of strawberry, cherry and plum underpinned by a subtle spice. It carries soft tannins backed by a crisp acidity. Why not try with our Soy & Mustard Rack of Lamb or Miso Beef Tenderloin?

Innocent Bystander Moscato, Yarra Valley, VIC

10/34

They say great things come in small packages and this wine is proof! Originating in Piedmont, Northern Italy, this wine is sweet in style, light in alcohol (5.5%) and fantastically fizzy. A lively blend of watermelon, musk and rose petal with hints of sherbert, strawberries and toffee apple. A fun way to end a great meal, especially when paired with our Sweet fried Cigars or Five Spice & Black Cherry Parfait!
